

Notice of Right to Reasonable Accommodation/Modification

If you have any kind of disability and need any of the following changes in order to live here, use the facilities here, or participate in any on-site programs, you can ask for such changes, which are called reasonable accommodations:

- a change in the rules, policies, or the way we do things;
- repairs or modifications in your apartment, or a special type of apartment;
- a change or repair to some other part of the buildings or grounds;
- a change in the way we communicate with you or give you information.

If the change you need is based on your disability, and if your request is reasonable, we will try to make the changes you request.

We will give you an answer within ten (10) days, unless there is a problem getting the information we need or unless you agree to a longer time. We will let you know if we need more information or verification from you.

If we cannot grant your request, we will explain the reasons and will talk with you about other ways to meet your needs. You can also give us more information if you think it will help.

You can request any of the changes listed above at any time during the application process or while you are a tenant. You can make the request by filling out a Reasonable Accommodation/Modification Request Form, which you can get from your property manager.

If you need help filling out the Reasonable Accommodation/Modification Request Form, or if you want to request a change in some other way, we will help you do so.
